SHRI MANOJ BHATTACHARYA:

Will the Minister of LAW AND JUSTICE be pleased to slate:

(a) whether Government have recently promulgated an Ordinance on Electoral Reforms;

(b) if so, the details thereof;

(c) whether the Ordinance runs contrary not only to the guidelines issued by the Election Commission in compliance of the orders of the Hon'ble Supreme Court on 25"' May, 2002, but also to the specific recommendations of the Ethics Committee of the Rajya Sabha on the subject in its latest report;

(d) if so, the reasons therefor;

(e) whether any steps taken to correct the same; and

(f) if not. the reasons therefor?

THE MINISTER OF LAW AND JUSTICE (SHRI K. JANA KRISHNAMURTHY): (a) and (b) Yes, Sir The representation of the People (Amendment) Ordinance, 2002 (No. 4 of 2002) was promulgated on 24.8.2002. The copy of the said Ordinance has already been laid on the Table of the Rajya Sabha on 20.11.2002.

(c) to (f) The Ordinance is based on the consensus arrived at among the political parties in the meetings held on 8th July 2002 and 2nd August 2002. The parties did not feel inclined to accept all the guidelines of the Supreme Court of India. However, some of the major concerns have been met in the Ordinance. Further, as far as the recommendations of the Ethics Committee in its Third Report are concerned, the Report does not touch upon the issues which have been dealt in the Ordinance. As such, it cannot be said that the Ordinance is against any specific recommendation of the Ethics Committee.
